A most impressive large scale Italian 19th century Neo-Classical Ebony, Ivory three door and six drawer cabinet vitrine. The cabinet is raised by mottled bun shaped feet. The straight frieze has three drawers each with most decorative and intricately inlaid foliate ivory designs. Each of the three doors are separated by fluted columns and display their original beveled glass pane. The front panels of the doors are inlaid with ivory in striking foliate designs with rinceau patterns and detailed satyr faces. The two outer doors open to display four adjustable shelves each decorated with a tulipwood fillet. The central door opens to display two adjustable shelves and two bottom shelves, one with a single drawer, the other with two drawers which can be locked by the central key. The grand top crown displays a beautiful shape and is decorated with additional foliate ivory inlaid designs.
