A striking Italian 19th century Neo-Classical marble and gilt metal side table. The rectangular table is raised by handsome gilt metal paw feet below the mottled patinated off white frieze with egg and dart designed gilt metal border. The bottom tier displays a wonderful thick green marble which is repeated at the top. The most decorative top is supported by four faux painted porphyry columns with foliate gilt metal accents. Available with a complimentary side table, item #10320, sold separately.
