A striking Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. Alabaster, Onyx and marble pedestal with original matching urn. The pedestal is raised by a circular marble base below a mottled onyx band. The circular central onyx column displays a most decorative fluted alabaster support and a beautiful and finely sculpted foliate band. Above, the most impressive urn displays a fine fluted base and fabulous fluted design at the body. At the center is the same elegant wrap around foliate band while the exceptional pierced rim displays a sculpted twisted foliate border and the removable lid.
