A stately and most handsome Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. flamed Mahogany and giltwood library/center table. The four drawer circular table is raised by impressive richly carved giltwood paw feet below elegant circular fluted legs with fitted giltwood accents and fine mottled top and bottom caps. Each leg is connected by a superb stretcher with concave sides and a central elegantly curved octagonal pedestal support with a reeded base decorated with additional fine giltwood accents. The apron displays four drawers, each decorated with a delicate ormolu keyhole escutcheon and showcasing the beautiful warm flamed Mahogany grain. Above is the original fitted leather surface with an elegant gold tooled fillet and embossed Greek key design at the border. All original gilt throughout.
