A high quality and most decorative Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. Giltwood and patinated Wood mirror. This wonderful rectangular original mirror is set within a beautiful Giltwood frame with mottled edges and foliate carvings. Two slender mirror plates, with floral branch decorations atop, flank the larger scaled central mirror that displays a charming oval profile above of a maiden in a laurel headdress. The top crown of this attractive mirror displays a round crest with a rose-colored patinated background showcasing two boars flanking a free. The crest is encased in a slender acanthus leaf band and additional scrolling foliate designs that extend out to each corner. All original gilding and mirror plates throughout
