A handsome and architectural Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. giltwood and patinated wood Trumeau mirror. The original rectangular shaped mirror plate is surrounded by a Coeur de Rai giltwood band on an outer patinated wood background. The mirror plate is flanked by two columns with plinths, foliate capitals, and recessed panels which are decorated by foliate scrolls and large palmettes. The grand top crown above displays an intricately carved giltwood design with three stunning giltwood seashells flanked by superb pierced finely detailed palmettes and scrolled foliate designs. All original gilt and patina throughout.
