An impressive and most handsome Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. Mahogany, polychrome, and giltwood center table. The oval table is raised by striking and most unique lion head and paw feet below four pairs of rare beautiful double leg supports each displaying a square tapered design, charming feet, and richly chased polychrome caryatids with striking giltwood accents. The supports are each connected by a most decorative stretcher with an elegant concave design and elegant geometric design. The oval top showcases the warm Mahogany wood grain with a fitted mottled border.
