A high quality and beautiful Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. Sienna, Giallo Antico, faux painted marble, patinated wood and Giltwood library/center table. This unique library table is raised by four column like legs with square mottled edge feet connected by a thick 'H' stretcher with mottled edges. The four carved Giltwood plinths are decorated with acanthus leaves below the patinated wood columns with central Giltwood foliate wrap around reserves. The Giltwood capitals above showcase wonderful foliate capitals and flank the faux painted marble apron on all four sides. Above the apron is a handsome mottled band below the impressive rectangular Sienna marble top framed by a Giallo Antico marble border.
