A handsome Italian early 19th century Neo- Classical st. walnut, ebony and giltwood center table. The circular center table is raised by fine bun feet below elegant square tapered legs with charming giltwood feet and beautiful giltwood caryatids above. Each leg is connected by a striking stretcher with concave sides and a superb and most decorative quarter veneered design. The apron displays four drawers, each decorated with a family crest shaped ebony keyhole escutcheon and additional ebony fillets. Above is the circular top showcasing the beautiful warm walnut grain.
