A handsome Italian early 19th century Neo-Classical walnut, ebonized Fruitwood, ormolu and giltwood circular center table from Lucca. The table is raised by lovely ebonized Fruitwood bun feet with a fine wrap around giltwood band. At the center is the beautiful bottom tier which displays a striking and most decorative quarter veneered design and concave sides. Each of the square tapered legs displays charming ormolu feet at the base and impressive richly chased ormolu caryatids above. The circular top also displays a lovely quarter veneered design showcasing the beautiful walnut grain.
