A striking and extremely decorative Italian 19th century onyx, faux painted marble, patinated and giltwood center / dining table. The beautiful table is raised by a most elegant circular pedestal support with a wonderfully executed faux painted marble base and a richly carved wrap around berried laurel band. The circular central support displays a lovely patinated color adorned with stunning richly carved and finely detailed swaging floral garlands tied with charming ribbons. Above is the original circular red onyx top displaying superb and most decorative veins and a fine mottled border.
