An elegant and high quality Italian 19th century patinated Bronze and Limestone birdbath/planter, signed A. Fazzi. This stunning birdbath is raised on a wonderful square Limestone pedestal with a fine mottled edge. Above is a exceptionally chased four sided support with scrolled foliate movements flanked by busts of classical figures at the four corners. A mottled ground like base supports the Bronze maiden above with intricate foliage leading up to a charming cherub and the Portoro marble basin. The basin displays a wide and shallow interior, with the rim being finished with a lovely mottled edge.
