A beautiful Italian 19th century Renaissance st. giltwood and marble octagonal side table. The table is raised by a giltwood tripod base with richly carved scrolled legs. Each leg is adorned with foliate patterns and inverted topie shape finials. The circular central support displays a reeded and fluted design. The octagonal shaped top displays its original fitted Vert Patricia marble top set within a carved border with impressive scrolled designs and inverted finials at the apron. All original gilt throughout.
