A sensational and most impressive Italian 19th century Renaissance st. Giltwood, Silver leaf and patinated wood console and mirror. The console is raised on a scalloped shaped base with a foliate gilt band below two open winged dragon like figures wearing silver and gilt armor. The dragons are standing above dolphins which have their tails wrapped around the stretcher, which is decorated at the center by a richly carved floral bouquet. The dolphins are laying on a gilt scrolled platform with a patinated brown and mirrored background, and are flanked by two square back supports with gilt foliate designs. The apron above displays a central gilt crest with a whimsical mask and bottom acanthus leaves while flanked on each side by foliate scrolls and gilt rosettes. The top has a wonderful fitted Sienna marble with a carved gilt edge. The grand mirror above has two outer scrolls with large acanthus leaves all below winged dragons. The original mirror plate is fitted within a mottled edge and a Coeur de Rai designed band. The border of the frame has a patinated brown background which is decorated by additional gilt foliate scrolls that lead to the elaborate pierced top crown. The top crown has two winged cherubs at the center holding a garland of flowers while flanking a bouquet of flowers. On each side are two exquisitely detailed love birds above hanging gilt flowers.

Exceptional quality and all original gilding throughout.
