An exceptional Italian 19th century Rococo st. giltwood and onyx console. The freestanding console is raised by elegant tapered cabriole legs with topie shaped feet below beautiful scrolled foliate designs and lovely floral carvings. Each leg is connected by a striking stretcher with lovely curved supports and an impressive pieced central reserve. Above each leg are richly carved cabochon reserves flanking the superb scalloped shaped apron with an exceptional and most decorative pierced lattice design centering the stunning scrolled foliate reserve. Above is the original fitted onyx top repeating the beautiful shape of the console below and set within a fine double mottled giltwood band. All original gilt throughout.
