An outstanding Italian 19th century Rococo st. oil on canvas still life painting in its original giltwood frame. The beautiful wonderfully executed painting depicts colorful finely detailed blooming flowers with a superb array of striking vibrant colors in an outdoor setting with a column to the left and a blue sky with clouds in the background. The frame displays exceptional richly carved pierced scrolled foliate designs along the border with a charming wrap around twisted rope band with wonderful foliate designs in a rich satin and burnished finish at the center set on an impressive and most decorative hammered background. All original paint and gilt.
