A stunning and extremely high quality Italian 19th century solid white Carrara marble statue of a woman with bound hands and feet. The statue, with a very unique subject matter, is raised on its original square base with "Originale Fabio Albano Faget Firenze 1879" inscribed at the front. The beautiful maiden is standing on a wonderfully executed ground like base while draped in an exceptional flowing fabric. She displays wonderfully sculpted facial features with a perturbed frown and her hands and feet are bound with finely detailed rope. Remarkable proportions and attention to detail throughout.
