A stunning and extremely high quality Italian 19th century solid white Carrara marble statue of a young fisherman. The statue is raised by a square base with cut corners and a fine ground like design. Above is the charming young boy dressed in wonderfully executed rolled up shorts and a rolled up shirt falling off his shoulder while wearing a charming hat with fine flowing curly hair and a necklace around his neck. His remarkable net is packed in his belt trailing behind him while he is holding an intricately detailed woven basket with his catch of the day of richly sculpted fish that he is trying to sell.

Wonderful attention to detail throughout.
