An exceptional and most charming Italian 19th century Terra Cotta statue on its original pedestal. The statue is raised on its original pedestal with a fine square faux painted marble base below the elegant mottled circular support and wonderfully executed fluted circular column. Above is the richly detailed

Terra Cotta statue of a young boy standing in front of a tree trunk while dressed in charming baggy period attire with a lovely hat on his head and raising a toast holding a wine glass up in his hand. Wonderful proportions and fine attention to detail throughout.
