An outstanding Italian 19th century walnut and fruitwood inlaid center table.

The circular table is raised by casters leading up three supports to the triangular tapered central fut with concave sides and rich fruitwood inlays of palmettes and foliate patterns bordering a charming personage. At the top is a sunburst veneered walnut with wonderful fruitwood inlays of the same foliate patterns and figure. At the top border and frieze is a rinceau and floral pattern. All original warm patina throughout.
