A most impressive and large scale Italian early 19th century Neo-Classical st. walnut, rosewood white Carrara, Vert Maurin and Rose Vif des Pyrénées marble center table. The striking circular table is raised by fine Rose Vif des Pyrénées marble block supports below beautiful circular Vert Maurin marble columns with richly sculpted ionic white Carrara marble capitals and mottled plinths. Each support is connected by an elegant stretcher with lovely baluster shaped designs and a fine central inlaid circular reserve. The table displays a stunning sunburst veneered walnut top framed in a beautiful rosewood band with a fine mottled border.
