An impressive and large scale Italian 19th century white Carrara and Verde Alpi Cesana marble fireplace mantel. The mantel is raised by elegant jambs with mottled feet and most decorative cut corners with beautiful fitted Verde Alpi Cesana marble plaques and large striking scrolled foliate designs at each corner. A lovely mottled border leads up the jambs and along the straight apron which is decorated with superb additional Verde Alpi Cesana marble plaques and a central circular mottled reserve. Above is the original white Carrara marble top with rounded corners and a fine mottled border.
