An exceptional Italian 19th century white Carrara marble bust of a handsome young messenger. The bust is raised by an elegant circular socle shaped pedestal support with a finely mottled wrap around border. Above is the wonderfully executed young man dressed in elegant classical period attire with a buttoned waistcoat and wearing a superb intricately sculpted sheep's skin gilet. A finely detailed leather strap is draped over his shoulder with an exceptional buckle and he wears an elegant hat with a charming finely detailed feather with his masterfully sculpted long hair flowing out from behind.
