A stunning and extremely high quality Italian 19th century white Carrara marble statue of a Neapolitan fisher boy. The statue is raised by a wonderfully executed ground like designed base where the handsome exquisitely detailed fisher boy above is standing barefoot in front of a tree stump. He is dressed in charming shorts with masterfully executed folds and pleats with a charming finely detailed belt and flowing shirt. He is wearing a hat over his curly hair and is holding his tied bamboo fishing pole in one hand and his intricately sculpted catches of the day in the other. Superb attention to detail throughout.
