A stunning and most charming Italian 19th century white Carrara marble statue of a young girl on its original Vert de Patricia marble pedestal. The delicately carved statue depicts a young girl smiling with her hands extended in front of her in a playful manner. She displays a charming smile with her hair blowing in the wind and a lace blouse draped over her shoulder. Below is the original and high quality Vert de Patricia marble pedestal displaying a most decorative spiral fluted design all below the circular top display shelf with a fine mottled border.
