An exceptional and most unique Italian early 18th century Baroque period ebonized fruit wood and Pietra Dura marble and semi precious stone inlaid specimen cabinet. The small scale cabinet is raised by charming block feet below the mottled bottom support. The cabinet displays eight drawers, one larger drawer at the bottom and the top and individual drawers at the center. Each drawer is masterfully decorated with a stunning array of finely inlaid marble. The drawers are separated by beautiful red marble columns. The top drawer and top crown display striking inlaid Lapis Lazuli, all below a fine ormolu finial.
