A stunning Italian early 18th century Baroque period giltwood and cut glass mirror. The central rectangular mirror plate is set within a fine mottled border with exceptional finely detailed carvings extending throughout the frame. At the base is a beautiful family crest in a seashell shape amidst charming berries flanked by large acanthus leaves and unique extremely detailed fitted cut glass rosettes. Impressive reeded scrolled foliate movements extend up the sides adorned with lovely foliate designs and additional berries and superb blooming flowers with fitted cut glass centers. Above is the remarkable top crown with a fine central cabochon reserve amidst beautiful ripe fruit draped across the top and flanked by large scrolled foliate movements and fine fitted cut glass leaves.
