A spectacular and extremely high quality Italian early 18th century Louis XV period giltwood and Rosso Verona marble console from Naples. The freestanding console is raised by impressive cabriole legs with stunning Rocaille designed foliate carvings and superb curved foliate cabochons at each corner. Each leg is connected by a remarkable scrolled X shaped stretcher centered by magnificent floral carvings and a striking most decorative foliate reserve. The pierced arbalest shaped apron displays exquisite reeded foliate designs flanking the outstanding uniquely designed central reserve. Above is the original Rosso Verona marble top with elegantly curved corners and a fine mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
