A most attractive Italian early 18th century Pietra Dura Marble, Wrought Iron and Brass coffee table. The most stunning Pietra Dura marble plateau is supported by a wonderful Wrought Iron base with two horseshoe shaped legs connect in the center by a straight stretcher accented with Gilt Iron and Brass reserves. The stunning Pietra Dura plateau above is centered by a wonderful circular Sienna marble rosette bordered by a Vert de Patricia marble band. Flanking the central rosette are beautifully scrolled inlays of marbles in an array of colors, and bordered by multiple bands of Vert de Patricia, Sienna and black Belgian marble.
