A striking and extremely elegant Italian early 19th century gilt metal, cut glass, and crystal chandelier. The twelve arm chandelier from the Turino region is centered by a beautiful cut faceted bottom crystal ball pendant below a stunning array of kite, prism, and tear drop shaped cut crystal pendants. The gilt metal cage displays a most decorative scrolled design adorned with lovely cut glass beads leading to remarkable floral bobeches and fine mottled candle cups spread over two tiers. At the center and above are exquisite beaded cut glass sprays leading to additional striking cut crystal pendants also spread over two tiers. All original gilt throughout.
