A stunning Italian early 19th century giltwood, polychrome and Pietra Dura marble Florentine side table. The table is raised by three scrolled polychrome legs with beautiful giltwood fillets and carved foliate accents. The central support displays a most decorative shape with unique giltwood cabochon carvings and a reeded design. The table displays lovely scrolled foliate designs at the frieze and a lovely foliate giltwood border above which frames the fitted top. The striking top displays masterfully executed Pietra Dura marble and semi precious stone inlays of charming and finely detailed flowers with beautiful vivid colors.

Original Florentine manufacturer's label on wood supporting bar under the marble top.
