A stunning Italian early 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood and white Carrara marble free standing console. The console is raised by elegant scrolled feet below impressive cabriole legs. Each leg is decorated with large richly carved acanthus leaves, connected by a striking X shaped stretcher with a striking central pierced foliate reserve. The pierced frieze displays a superb and finely carved central foliate reserve with swaging floral garlands and fine scrolled movements. Above is the exquisite white Carrara marble top which displays a beautiful deep mottled border and follows the contours of the decorative and unique scalloped shape of the console. With all original gilt throughout.
