A striking Italian early 19th century Louis XV st. Mecca and Sarrancolin Breccia marble console from Naples. The freestanding console is raised by elegant cabriole legs with scrolled feet and beautiful foliate designs with charming finely detailed blooming flowers and striking curved foliate cabochons at each corner. The impressive scalloped frieze is centered by an exceptional richly carved seashell reserve flanked by lovely scrolled movements and fine floral and foliate accents set on a lattice background. Above is the original thick Sarrancolin Breccia marble top with a beautiful double mottled border.
