An exceptional and most decorative Italian early 19th century Louis XV st. patinated wood, Mecca, and Incarnat Turquin marble center table. The oblong shaped table is raised by elegant cabriole legs with fine scrolled acanthus leaf feet and charming richly carved flowers at the corners below impressive scrolled cabochon reserves. The stunning scalloped shaped apron displays lovely scrolled Mecca fillets set on a superb carved lattice patterned background centering the large richly carved seashell reserve. Above is the original Incarnat Turquin marble top with a stunning quarter veneered design and a wrap around mottled border following the beautiful shape of the table below.
