An impressive and high quality Italian early 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and Brèche de Medicis marble console. The console is raised by elegant circular tapered fluted legs with fine topie shaped feet with superb foliate designs, and mottled foliate top caps. Above each leg are charming block rosettes flanking the straight frieze decorated with beautiful scrolled Rinceaux designs adorned with acanthus leaves amidst an urn with Greek key handles centering a whimsical satyr mask framed within a beaded band and all set on a hammered background. The sides are decorated in a similar fashion. Above is the original mottled Brèche Médicis marble top with a fine stepped border. All original gilt throughout.
