A sensational and extremely elegant Italian early 19th century Neo-Classical st. cherry and giltwood freestanding console. The console is raised by a 'U' shaped support with protruding blocks and giltwood mottled trim. The base is decorated with gilt moldings and rosettes. Above are the two front legs with attractive giltwood caryatids over square tapered columns ending by gilt pawed supports. The back rectangular legs have bottom gilt plinths while the top are accented by gilt capitals. The frieze has a central gilt rosette flanked by palmettes and additional rosettes at each corner and each side is similarly decorated. Above is a richly carved egg and dart giltwood trim. supporting the original Gris St. Anne marble. Extremely high quality throughout.
