A most attractive Italian early 19th century Neo-Classical st. patinated Bronze and white Carrara marble birdbath/planter. This elegant birdbath is raised on a patinated Bronze base supported on three oversized lion's paw feet leading to handsome mythical griffins. Resting on the feet is a triangular support displaying swans, swaging garlands and ram's heads on each corner. The base presents the spiral fluted stem framed by three scrolled arms reaching up to the basin. The impressive and round white Carrara marble basin displays a deeply recessed band and cascading ogee edge.
