A stunning Italian early 19th century Neo-Classical st. red lacquered, Giltwood and Portor marble console, circa 1810. The demi lune shaped free standing console is raised on tapered legs with hand painted foliate designs, Giltwood carved sabots, and acanthus leaf top caps. At the frieze are Giltwood trimmed recessed panels decorated with hand painted designs of theatrical masks, urns of prosperity, lions, and griffins amidst floral garlands and acanthus leaves. Above is the original veneered Portor marble top with a elegant mottled border.
