An elegant and unusual Italian late 18th century Louis XVI period giltwood and alabaster rectangular planter. The planter is raised by topie shaped supports below fluted columns with decorative chandelles, topped by eternal flame finials at each corner. The sides are decorated with fitted inserts of Alabastro Rosso Del Gebel Oust, surrounded by a beaded design and flat burnished border. At the top is a Coeur de Rai designed border. The interior is fitted with a protective metal liner.
