An exceptional and wonderfully decorative Italian late 18th century Neo-Classical st. patinated Wood, Giltwood, Sienna and Breccia Pernice marble console. This truly stunning freestanding console is raised on a scalloped base below two carved patinated wood lions with acanthus leaf decorated legs and pawed feet. The back support displays fine Giltwood accents and rectangular panels flanking the original central mirror plate set within a Coeur-de-Rai Giltwood frame. The front and both side straight aprons are designed with pierced Giltwood patterns of scrolling foliate decorations over a patinated background and edged above and below with Giltwood bands. The rectangular top displays Sienna marble throughout the center with a Breccia Pernice marble border.
