A palatial and uniquely scaled Italian late 19th century Baroque st. carved stone, patinated wood and mosaic center table. This spectacular table is raised by three elegant 'C' scrolled pierced carved stone trestle supports with rectangular bases and the scrolls joined at the top by two additional scrolls.

The most impressive rectangular top is decorated with three inset mosaic inlaid panels of geometric and foliate designs. The interior of the three identical squared panels have a circular designs with green colored arbalest shaped accents amidst lattice patterns. The circular designs are framed by green colored corner scrolls and bordered by additional lattice patterns. At the four outer corners are decorative circular rosette like inlays and all framed within a mottled patinated wood frame.
