A sensational Italian late 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood and Coquillier de Bilbao marble center table. The table is raised by elegant and most decorative scrolled legs with fine hoof feet and beautiful richly carved acanthus leaves. Above each slender leg are lovely carved foliate corner designs flanking the striking finely detailed lattice with foliate rosettes and a central reserve. Above is the original Coquillier de Bilbao marble top with a fine mottled border and rounded corner. All original gilt throughout.
