An elegant and most decorative Italian late 19th century Neo-Classical st. Mahogany, Giltwood, ebonized Fruitwood and Specimen marble side table. The table is raised on three ebonized Fruitwood ball feet below the triangular Mahogany stretcher with concave sides and centered by a decorative urn. Each baluster shaped leg lead up to a stunning urn adorned with Giltwood foliate bands and ebonized Fruitwood handles below the wonderful Mahogany apron. The apron is decorated with a top and bottom band below the fitted specimen marble and semi-precious stone top inlaid with a central circular Lapis Lazuli marble. Wonderful quality and attention to detail throughout.
