A most decorative Italian mid 18th century Louis XVI st. Giltwood potpourri urn. The oval shaped lidded urn is raised on a stunning base with four dolphins at the center above a beaded band. The bottom of the urn has decorative leaves below a twisted ribbon like band which is flanked by the two 'U' shaped handles. The edge of the lid is decorated with leaves below the open slats to allow the fragrance of the potpourri to escape. At the top are additional carved leaves with a top acorn finial. The lid removes to display the original painted interior. A beautiful and decorative object.
