An impressive and most handsome Italian mid 19th century Baroque st. giltwood mirror from Naples. The mirror retains its original mirror plate framed within a wrap around mottled border with beautiful finely carved interlocking foliate designs. At the base are elegant block feet below superb scrolled acanthus leaf elements flanking the scalloped frieze. The frieze is centered by a lovely floral and lattice reserve set on a hammered background with additional striking scrolled interlocking designs also repeated up each side. The exceptional and uniquely shaped top crown displays an impressive architectural design with its original circular mirror plate flanked by wonderful scrolled movements, lattice patterns, and striking decorative scrolled elements. All original gilt throughout.
