A beautiful Italian mid 19th century Louis Philippe period Walnut and white Carrara marble console. The freestanding console is raised by most decorative reeded bun feet below the bottom rectangular tier and striking scrolled supports leading up each side with richly carved foliate accents. The straight frieze displays exceptional veneered walnut designs showcasing the beautiful warm Walnut wood grain all below the original white Carrara marble top. A stunning Walnut stretcher connects the scrolled legs with volute carved ends. At the back are rectangular vertical walnut columns below the richly grained straight apron, with a top half round trim. Above is the original white Carrara marble top.
