A handsome and extremely unique Italian mid 19th century Louis XIV st. Ebonized Fruitwood and ivory desk. The desk is raised by eight impressive square tapered leg with fine mottled feet and wonderful intricately detailed inlaid ivory winged figures above foliate designs. Each leg is connected by a most decorative stretcher with a beautiful geometric like design with a central upholstered foot rest. The lower part of the desk displays five drawers each displaying stunning masterfully executed inlaid ivory scrolled foliate designs amidst masks and lovely maidens set on a recessed ebonized Fruitwood background with a mottled border. Above is the burgundy fitted leather writing surface with a fine tooled border below three additional drawers also displaying exceptional ivory inlaid designs below a stepped shelf and striking top crown with a richly carved central family crest like reserve.
