A spectacular and most impressive Italian mid 19th century Louis XVI st. white Carrara marble swivel pedestal. The tall pedestal is raised by a mottled circular base below a beaded design. Above is an octagon shaped fut with mottled recessed panels all below double tapered acanthus leaves with a central beaded band. The octagon shape is repeated, with protruding X shaped interior reserves all below elongated acanthus leaves. The thick swivel top is above a gadroon shaped band. Wonderful proportions and quality.
