An impressive and most decorative Italian mid 19th century Venetian st. giltwood and Arabescato marble console. The rectangular freestanding console is raised by exquisite scrolled legs with ball feet and lovely carved mottled fillets throughout, laurel leaves at the border, and wrapped with large acanthus leaves. Each leg is connected by a wonderful scrolled stretcher decorated in a similar manner and centered by a stunning richly carved reserve of blooming flowers. The scalloped apron displays most decorative draped garlands with carved tassels tied with ribbons at the corners and centered by a pierced family crest like reserve with large scrolled movements in a superb satin and burnished finish with the sides decorated in a similar manner. Above is the original Arabescato marble top fitted within a mottled giltwood border. All original gilt throughout.
