A sensational Continental 19th century Louis Phillippe period mahogany one drawer Boule side table. The table is raised on triangular base with concave sides below three S scrolled supports, centered by a baluster shaped column. At the top is a sensational Boule brass inlay. Centered by a family crest with a crown above and scrolling foliate designs at each side. Individually framed panels, in a sunburst pattern, display alternating inlays of scrolling leaves and detailed winged caryatids amidst foliate patterns. All original patina throughout.
